Buttercup the Kitten

My family and I have a kitten and her name is Buttercup. Buttercup is creamy white with black spots. She has a noisy bell around her neck that makes a lot of sound when she walks or jumps. We always know where she is!

She is a very special kitten because she can talk! That's right! You did not read that incorrectly. She loves to tell silly farm stories about the other animals. Her favorite one is about a dog that thought he was a mouse. Imagine that!

My friends love to come visit her at our farm after school to listen to her funny stories. Buttercup loves to hang out with us and the other animals. When the day is over, Buttercup goes to sleep happy thinking about her next day.
