

Échelle d’appréciation

Essential elements	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Speaking	The student rarely attempts to use proper sentence structures or precise vocabulary while speaking. The student is rarely able to share, in his or her own words, the main ideas of stories or other texts.	The student attempts to use proper and precise sentence structures, vocabulary and common expressions while speaking. He or she can participate in conversations related to familiar topics. The student is able to share, in his or her own words, the main ideas of stories or other texts.	The student uses proper and precise descriptive vocabulary and a variety of sentence structures and common expressions while speaking. He or she can participate in conversations on topics of personal interest, and relay his or her ideas with fluency. The student is able to share, in his or her own words, details about the main ideas of stories or other texts.	The student uses proper and precise descriptive vocabulary and a variety of sentence structures and colloquial expressions while speaking. He or she can participate in elaborate, lengthy conversations on a variety of topics, whether familiar or not. Ideas are shared with fluency and control. The student is able to share, in his or her own words and in logical order, details about the main ideas and timelines of stories and other texts.
Listening	The student rarely understands the sequence of events or the main idea while listening to a story or other audio text (from various sources, people and media).	The student understands some of the events and some of the details pertaining to the main idea while listening to a story or other audio text (from various sources, people and media).	The student understands the sequence of events and most of the details pertaining to the main ideas while listening to a story or other audio text (from various sources, people and media).	The student understands, in detail, the sequence of events, the main ideas and supporting details while listening to a story or other audio text (from various sources, people and media).