

Anglais langue seconde – 6^e année

Écriture Voie B

Copie type de niveau 4

Justification

Le texte est clair, détaillé et il captive le lecteur du début à la fin. L'élève développe son sujet tout au long de l'histoire. La transition entre les paragraphes est fluide et les idées sont logiques et bien organisées. L'élève utilise une variété de styles et y insère quelques expressions qui rendent le texte plus riche. L'élève a une bonne connaissance des conventions linguistiques et son texte comporte peu d'erreurs.

Copie type

Le travail de l'élève débute à la page suivante.

Stuck at the zoo

It was the end of the school trip at the zoo, and all the students from Diggie's class were starting to get in line. As the eleven-year old boy walked towards the other classmates, he realised that he really had to go to the bathroom. He couldn't hold it in longer, and wetting himself at that age would make him the laughing stock of the school.

So he decided to quickly go to the bathroom which, thankfully, was close to the bus. He ran inside and closed the door, only to know that when he closed it... it was locked. It only took him a minute or two, and he could still hear the bus. He sighed in relief, knowing that he went fast enough.

Diggie washed his hands and tried to open the door, in vain. He thought "maybe i just didn't pull hard enough" and tried again. The door didn't budge. Diggie started kicking the door, but nothing happened. He heard the bus leaving. He was left behind! And the zoo was closing in five minutes!

-Wait! I'm still here! he shouted. The bus already left.

And the Zoo closed, so nobody was there to rescue him.

he was all alone. He had no cell phone, and his parents were gone for the weekend. Diggie still had his backpack, so he was searching for something to get him outta here, there was nothing but school supplies. Suddenly, he found a bobby pin lying next to a stall. He picked it up and tried to unlock the door, but nothing happened - funny, it always works in movies! he mumbled.

An hour passed and nothing happened. Diggie was hungry so he ate a gum stick under the sink, which he probably shouldn't, because there's a funny taste in his mouth. The bobby pin was broken and he desperately waited for someone to rescue him. He really wants to go home and play Fortnite.[Ⓢ] He misses his parents and his Dog.

Suddenly, he heard a noise from outside. It didn't sound like an animal, more like footsteps. It became louder, and before he knew it, it was right in front of the bathroom door.

Scared, Diggie hid and armed himself with his metal ^{what?} bottle.

The creature was trying to get in! - I'm warning you, i'm armed! shouted Diggie. Suddenly, the door opened! Not knowing what to do, he screamed for help. - Stop screaming, Diggie!

He stopped. "Funny, that voice is familiar..."

- Grandma?! - How did you get stuck in here? The old woman said. - How did you know i was here?! said Diggie - well, you didn't come home, so figuring your idioticness, i thought that something happened on your school trip. Of course. No one knows Diggie better than his grandma, - but how did you unlock the door?

- Oh, yeah, i have a friend of mine who works here. I know where she keeps her keys. l'ets go home. - yeah, i wanna wash

my mouth, something tastes bad...

Next time, he'll go to the bathroom before a trip.