7. Justine has to compete against her sisters regularly. Would you like to compete in a competition against your siblings, friends or cousins? Explain why or why not, and how it would make you feel.

No, I would not like to compete against my siblings, friends and cousins cause if I beat them they might be sad and if they beat me I might be sad. But I still have to be happy for my siblings, friends and cousins so, I would probably be nervous to compete against them and scared.
