2. Be sure to:
 - a. Organize your ideas (perhaps by using a graphic organizer of your choice - see example).

 - b. Think about your ideas and write them down.

 - c. Read your ideas, make improvements, correct and add to your first copy:
 - i. Check your ideas, word choice, sentence structure, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, etc.

 - d. Clearly write a final copy.

Writing Task

Choose one item from each of the columns and write an exciting adventure story (choose one character, one setting and one conflict).

Character	Setting	Conflict
An inventor	A deserted garage	Your character suddenly can't move or can't speak
A thief	A small coffee shop	A wild animal is following your character
A secretary	An art museum	Something scary is approaching
A teenager	A space station	It has become unbearably cold
A doctor	A dank cave	A tornado is coming
A spy	A sports stadium	The ground is covered with something awful
A teacher	A scary house	Your character receives a weird letter
A tourist	A desolate campground	A nearby dam has broken
A soldier	An office building	Your character can't escape
An explorer	A dark cellar	Voices are telling your character to do something strange
A scientist	A movie set	A fire has been started
An astronomer	A huge park	Your character thinks that he or she is being watched
