Justification

L'élève communique bien ses idées, ce qui facilite la compréhension du texte. Son texte contient de courts paragraphes mais les marqueurs de relation sont manquants. Son vocabulaire et ses structures de phrases sont variés.

L'introduction et la conclusion sont présentes et satisfaisantes.

Pour les conventions, le texte comporte peu d'erreurs de grammaire et d'orthographe. La syntaxe est parfois à revoir mais tout de même très bien pour l'ensemble du texte.

Teens lack of sleep

A lot of teens are tired at school and don't perform as well as they could because of the lack of sleep. There are two main reasons why students are tired: school starts too soon and they have to stay up late because they have a lot of homework.

Waking up early

School starts too early for teens. Researches have shown that our brains are only fully activated and ready to learn after 10 o'clock. Plus, they're tired from staying up late the night before and they lack some sleep.

Staying up late

Teachers give a lot of homework. Projects are very long and their due dates are soon. It doesn't help that students have after school activities, like sports. And those activities are necessary for their mental health and happiness. Homework shouldn't be given except if a student was wasting his time in the classroom.

Students aren't happy with their school life. It's a lot of work and they can't sleep as much as they should. Teachers should put their health before their education.
